

For immediate release
Tues. March 21, 2017

Highlights of the King Township March 20 council meeting

King supports York Region's push for high-speed internet.

Council gave its support for York Region's application for the federal Connect to Innovate program. The Region is applying for federal funding to install broadband infrastructure throughout York Region.

You can read the report here.

Road resurfacing

Council approved the resurfacing of various roads in King Township, including sections of Kettleby Rd. and Woodchoppers' Lane.

You can read the report here.

Water report

Council received a report on the state of the Township's water system, as required by the provincial government.

The report's summary states King continues to provide safe municipal drinking water to all its residents, businesses, and visitors through the Ansnorveldt, King City, Nobleton, and Schomberg water distribution systems.

You can read the report here.

Memorial Park upgrade

Council approved the next phase of upgrades for Memorial Park in King City. The work, scheduled to start this summer, will include a new baseball diamond and shade structure.

You can read the report here.

-30-

Media contact:

Jason Ballantyne, Communications Officer
Phone: 905-833-4573 Email: jballantyne@king.ca